The College Board Opportunity Scholarships guide students through the college planning process and offer them a chance to earn money for college for each action they complete. Starting in 2019, the College Board is committing $5 million per year for the next five years to this new scholarship program, beginning with the Class of 2020. At least half of all of the scholarships will be designated for students whose families earn less than $60,000 per year. Students can earn scholarship opportunities when they …

1. Build a College List: $500
   Students can get started by exploring colleges they’re interested in.

2. Practice for the SAT: $1,000
   Students can use Official SAT® Practice on Khan Academy® to get ready for test day.

3. Improve Their SAT Score: $2,000
   Students can show how practice pays off by improving their SAT score.

4. Strengthen Their College List: $500
   Students’ college lists should have a mix of academic safety, fit, and reach schools.

5. Complete the FAFSA: $1,000
   Applying for financial aid is an important step in the college process.

6. Apply to Colleges: $1,000
   Students can earn by applying to the schools they want to attend.
