With a partner, act out the process of welcoming an incoming MC student by going over this questionnaire. One partner can play the student and the other the counselor.

As you progress through this activity:

1. Consider how it would feel for a student to answer these questions?
2. How could the process and the answers better help the school welcome and integrate the new student?

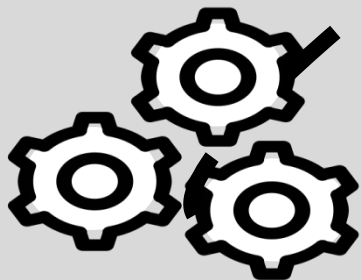

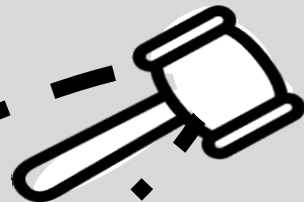

SHARE OUT

1. How could a tool like this help your school better welcome a new student?
2. How do you think a new student would respond to a questionnaire like this?
3. What steps could a school take to make sure the information for the questionnaire is shared with the right people?
4. What other steps might you or your school take to support a military-connected family after a move to a new school?

AGENDA

OBJECTIVE: Gain an understanding of the mobility mitigation models and proposed toolkit.

RESEARCH PROCESS

Risks Associated with Mobility

Effective Practices

Strengths of and Support for
MC-Students

- Interviews with practitioners
- Interviews with students and families
 - Case studies at schools
 - Academic research review

FINDINGS

Risks Associated with Mobility

- Academic challenges
- Social-emotional/integration challenges
- Administrative challenges

Effective Practices

- Effective intra and inter-school communication protocols
- Flexibility with families re: deadlines
- Robust socio-emotional support systems
- Welcoming practices and supportive school environment

Strengths of and Support for MC-Students

- Military Interstate Compact (MIC3)
- Resilience, perseverance, and adaptability
- Stronger material supports for military families than for other mobile populations

Mobility Mitigation Model

MOBILITY MODEL

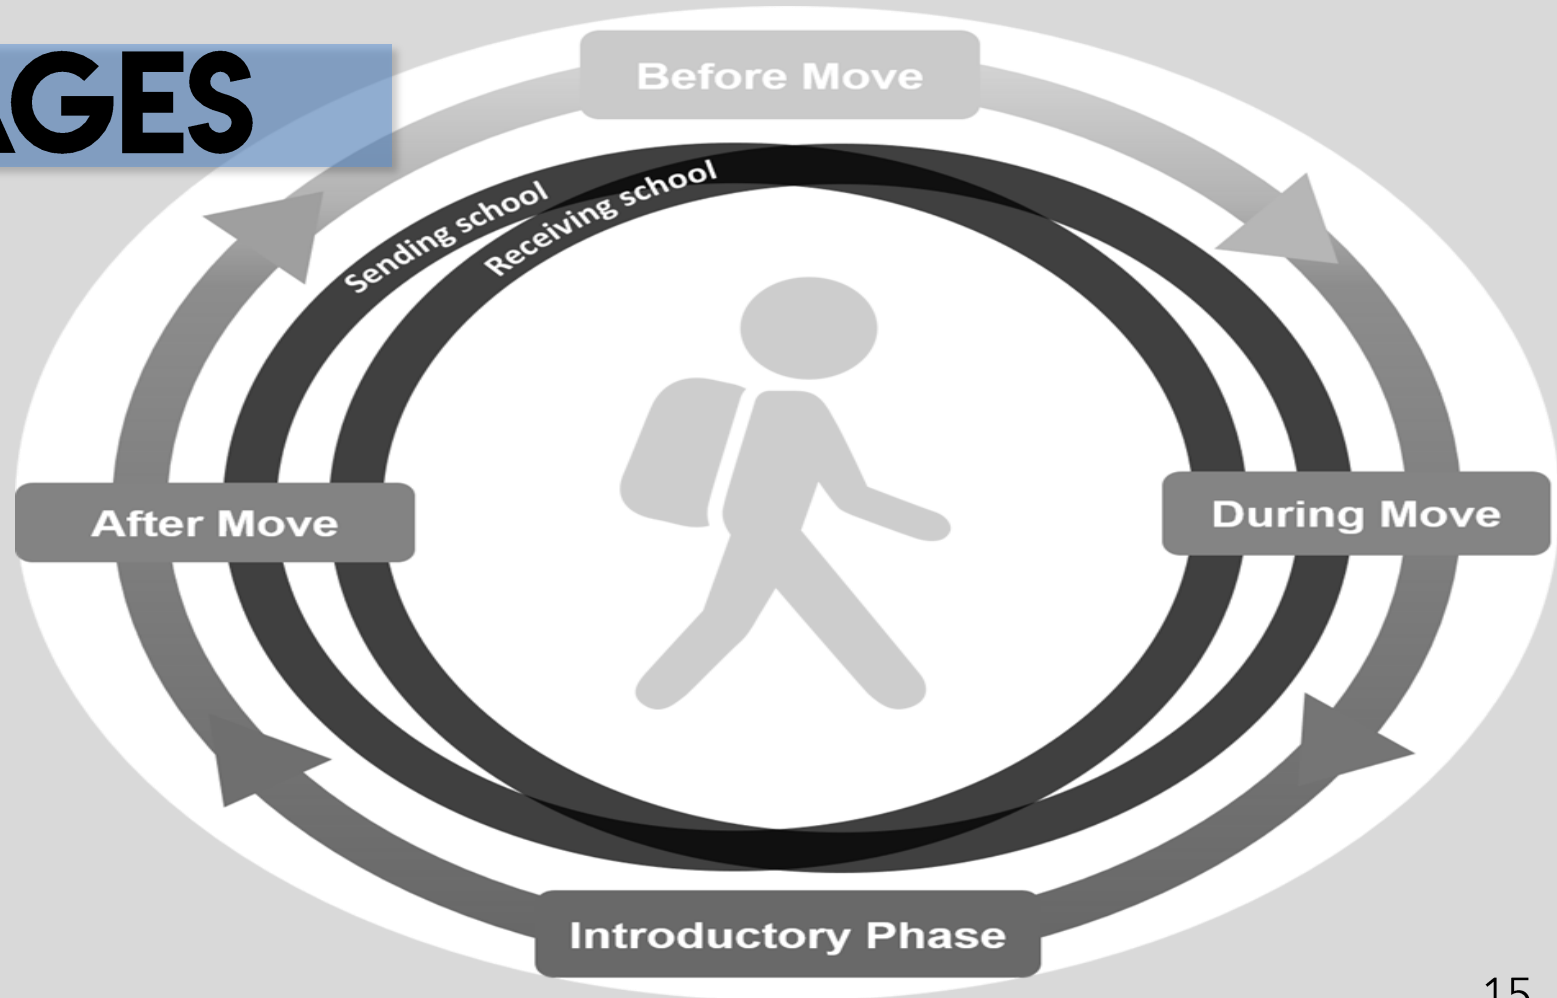

a framework to understand

- how mobility occurs,
- what risks emerge, and
- how schools can mitigate those risks

REFLECTION

What challenges would you expect to encounter when creating a mobility model for schools and districts across the United States?
