

Karen Ruedisueli

Karen Ruedisueli joined the National Military Family Association Government Relations team in May, 2013. She conducts research, monitors issues, and advocates for families of the uniformed services with a focus on military family health care and military caregivers. Karen also serves as the co-chair of The Military Coalition's (TMC) Health Care Committee and as the Association's representative on the TRICARE for Kids Coalition.

A University of Michigan graduate, Karen previously worked as a marketing consultant in Chicago. She and her husband, MAJ Kurt Ruedisueli (Ret), currently reside in the Washington D.C. metro area with their two children.
