

Michael Faran, M.D.

Michael Faran, MD; Ph.D. attended undergraduate at the UC, Berkeley and graduate school at the UCLA earning a PhD in Biology. Following graduate training, Dr. Faran joined the Army Medical Department as a Captain Entomologist assigned to Walter Reed Army Institute of Research and later USAMRIID. In 1986-1990, he attended Harvard Medical School. Subsequently, he trained in General, and Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. He has served as Training Director and Chief of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, at Tripler Army Medical Center. He is currently Director, Child and Family Behavioral Health System-Program Management Office, United States Army Medical Command, located at Madigan Army Medical Center.