

Paul K. Ban, Ph.D.

Paul K. Ban, Ph.D. is the Director of Outreach for the Child and Family Behavioral Health System-Program Management Office, United States Army Medical Command. Dr. Ban retired from the Hawaii Department of Education in 2009, where he served as the State Director for Special Education and Student Support. Dr. Ban's expertise is in the area of applying the Communities of Practice model to educational systems, and more recently, to the Military. He has been a presenter on military-connected children and family issues and programs at several national conferences such as the Annual Advancing School Mental Health conferences; the Military Child Education Coalition's annual National Training Seminars, and the Council for Exceptional Children.