The Military Child Education Coalition (MCEC) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, world-wide organization. A model of positive leadership and advocacy, the MCEC work is focused on ensuring quality educational opportunities for the close to four million military and veteran-connected children affected by mobility, family separation and transition. The MCEC performs research, develops resources, sponsors professional institutes, conducts training seminars and publishes information for all constituencies.

About the Parent to Parent Program

The Parent to Parent program provides informative and interactive workshops to groups or organizations in the local community. Parent to Parent teams are located in the areas of a number of military installations. The team members have personal expertise, backed by research. They share practical ideas, proven techniques, and solid resources to support the military parents/guardians of transitioning school-age children. Join the team today!
