Beth Rice is a Specialist for State Projects at UNC Greensboro’s SERVE Center. Prior to this role, she supported the North Carolina Department of Education, as a State MTSS Consultant and led the NC SEL Implementation Team.

She facilitates multiple communities of practice, supports alternative education, and focuses on scaling social, emotional, and behavior skills in adults and students.