Dr. Catherine Ling is a nurse scientist, practicing Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP), and certified nurse educator focusing on improving access to quality, primary care.

She works to improve culturally competent care for military families and is actively involved in community focused interventions to improve wellness and resilience.