Colonel (Ret) Eric Flake M.D. is Chief of Developmental Behavioral Pediatrics at Madigan Army Medical Center and created the Developmental-Behavioral Family Readiness Center for the DoD. Dr. Flake has published numerous articles and presentations regarding childhood resiliency and autism. He currently serves in the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) and is on the Science Advisory Board for the Military Child Education Coalition.

Sadie is a 16-year-old rising Junior at Steilacoom High School. She is a member of S2S, NHS, and SNHS programs and is a varsity cheerleader. She also enjoys singing for her schools in the Advanced and Chamber Choirs. She enjoys spending time with her family, reading books, playing the piano, and riding horses. Sadie has moved four times in her life. She has lived in Mississippi (2), Germany, and Washington (2). She has three sisters, one brother, and her dog Toby.