As Senior Director at ZERO TO THREE, Rebecca Parlakian leads a project portfolio on child development, parenting, and high quality teaching. She has co-authored five curricula, including the Early Connections parent café curriculum and Problem Solvers, an early math curriculum.

Rebecca holds a Master’s degree in infant/toddler special education from the George Washington University.